FREE COINAGE DEAD.

Yesterday Stewart's free coinage bill, on which so many hopes of Western prosperity depended, was stabbed to death in the House, ex-Speaker Reed leading the attack.

Republicans and Democrats alike crowded to the front to put their knives into the expiring body of an Act to deliver the laboring classes and producers from the clutches of their task masters in Wall street.

The body was dragged away and buried at the foot of the calendar.

Silver men close up your ranks there's a tomorrow coming.

A WHITE ELEPHANT.

The white elephant the Republican party of Ormsby has on its hands now is Tremmor Coffin.

The party leaders are very anxious to dispose of him before the Fall campaign, but can't clearly see their way to do it. They feel that it is certain defeat to go into the fight with Coffin identified with their campaign, and then again there is a certain class of work to be done that no one can do half so well as Coffin.

Although his labors in the field on election day have been considerably curtailed by the passage of the Australian ballot law, there are still little jobs that from the very nature of things seem to fall to him.

No one else seems to have the disposition to attempt them.

At the same time the public are so well "on" to Coffin and his operations, that unless he takes a back seat it means a Waterloo defeat for the whole county ticket.

But the devil of it is to make Coffin see it in that light. If anybody should suggest to him that his prominence in a fight was a handicap, he would look out of his mild blue eyes with all the innocence of a Summer maiden of thirteen, and begin to pose as the apostle of party purity and ballot reform.

A sleek, smooth man, that.

Old Aminadab Sleek could take lessons from him.

He is not only determined to be in, but is planning to run for Supreme Judge.

Failing in that, as he did two years ago, he will ask but one boon of the party—the Treasurership of the County Central Committee.

But Coffin can't be relegated to a back seat. He has too many little rackets on the men under his thumb, and they dare not shake him.

Like the old man of the sea, he has twined his legs about the neck of the party and can't be shaken off.

WAR RECORDS.

Weaver went into the Union Army a private and came out a Brevet Brigadier General. What's the matter with Weaver's war record? His advance was greater than Harrison's. Cleveland didn't go at all but hired a substitute for $300.

The answer of Johnson Sides the Indian, to Judge Bigelow, before the Board of Pardons, was a rare piece of repartee and logic. When asked why the Indians killed the witch, he replied: "For the same reason you folks used to kill 'em." It is not so very long ago that our ancestors killed and burned witches in Salem, Mass., and they claimed to be a good deal more civilized than the Indians are now.

Henry M. Stanley, when he lived in the United States passed for an American citizen. We are now informed by cablegram that in connection with his contest for the parliamentary seat of North Lambeth, he has produced a certificate of British nationality signed by the Home Secretary. He was beaten out of sight as he out to have been.

Pasturage.
On the Duffy and Kirman ranches which contain over 700 acres, being the largest body of pasture land in Ormsby county. As the waters from Clear Creek flume, Ash Canyon and Lake View flow through the property it is the best watered. From the extended range it is eminently fitted for stock cattle and horses. Two bulls, a Holstein and a Jersey, are kept for the service of stock. A limited number of milch cows will be driven from and returned to the city daily. Season commences April 15th. Terms reasonable.
